OFFICE MEMORANDUM

Subject:- System of payment by results-recommendation of the Pay Commission contained in paragraphs 28 to 30 in Chapter XX of their Report.

•-•-•-•-•-

The undersigned is directed to say that in paragraph 30 of chapter XX of their Report, the Pay Commission have recommended that a suitable system of payment by results should be introduced for Workshop Staff, wherever feasible; but that the basic time-wage for the period worked should be guaranteed, and the piece rate determined after scientific studies and in consultation with the workers. This recommendation has been accepted in principle by the Government. The Ministry of Commerce and Industry etc., are accordingly requested to examine the feasibility of introducing a suitable system of payments by results in the various
